

BUSINESSES YOU CAN BUILD FOR THE KIDS

1. TARANIS -- CHINA -- KIDS FUNCTIONAL FOOTWEAR

Metric	Detail
Founded	2011, Hangzhou. Brand of Hangzhou Taitong Trading Co., Ltd.
Category	Functional shoes for ages 0-16, engineered around 6 growth stages of the foot ("1/3FLEX" technology).
Scale (2024)	Nearly 1,000 stores across 360 Chinese cities; mid-to-high-end mall channel positioning.
2021 sales	RMB 500 million (approx. Rs 715 crore at Rs 14.3/CNY) reported for FY2021.
International expansion	First overseas flagship opened in California, USA, in 2024. Officially licensed Minions & Monsters kids footwear collection with Universal launched July 2026.

2. HIYA -- USA -- KIDS NUTRACEUTICALS / VITAMINS

Metric	Detail
Founded	2019 (launched March 2020) by Darren Litt and Adam Gillman. Self-funded -- built without traditional venture capital.
Category	Chewable multivitamins for kids -- no added sugar, artificial dyes or gummies. Subscription (DTC) model.
Revenue (LTM to Sep 2024)	Net sales USD 103 million (approx. Rs 989 crore); net income USD 19M (approx. Rs 182 crore); adjusted EBITDA USD 22M (approx. Rs 211 crore).
Customers	200,000+ as of September 2024.
Acquisition	USANA Health Sciences (NYSE: USNA) acquired a 78.8% controlling stake for USD 205 million cash (approx. Rs 1,968 crore), closed Dec 23, 2024. Reported overall deal/company valuation USD 260 million (approx. Rs 2,496 crore).

3. ONCE UPON A FARM -- USA -- CLEAN-LABEL KIDS FOOD

Metric	Detail
Founded	2015 by Cassandra Curtis and Ari Raz. Jennifer Garner and John Foraker (ex-CEO, Annie's) joined as co-founders in 2017.
Category	Organic, cold-pressed baby food and kids' snacks -- pouches, oat bars, dairy-style products. No added sugar or preservatives.
Total funding	USD 108 million raised over 5 rounds (approx. Rs 1,037 crore), incl. a USD 52M Series D led by CAVU Consumer Partners.
Revenue (FY ended Sep 2025)	USD 225 million (approx. Rs 2,160 crore) annual revenue, up 40%+ YoY; >60% revenue CAGR since 2018.
Distribution	~25,000 stores nationwide incl. Target, Whole Foods, Kroger, Walmart, Publix, Wegmans.

IPO	Listed on NYSE as "OFRM," Feb 2026, at USD 18/share. IPO raised USD 198M; company valued at USD 724 million (approx. Rs 6,950 crore) at listing.
-----	--

4. TIN CAN -- USA -- SCREEN-FREE KIDS COMMUNICATION

Metric	Detail
Founded	2022-23, Seattle, by Chet Kittleson, Max Blumen and Graeme Davies (Kittleson previously founded real-estate startup Far Homes).
Category	Wi-Fi-enabled, screen-free "landline-style" phone for kids aged 4-13. No apps, browsing or texting -- calls only, to a parent-approved contact list via companion app.
Price point	~USD 100 per device (approx. Rs 9,600) plus a free "Can2Can" calling plan between devices.
Total funding	USD 21.5 million raised across 4 rounds -- USD 3.5M pre-seed (Sep 2025) and a USD 12M seed round led by Greylock Partners (Dec 2025). Investors include Greylock, a16z-adjacent Antler, Mother Ventures.
Traction	Reached users in all 50 US states and Canada; sold out multiple production batches, incl. at Christmas 2025.
Revenue / unit sales	Not disclosed. No revenue, unit-sales or profitability figures were found in any credible source at the time of this report.

THE PATTERN ACROSS ALL FOUR

Company	Category	Revenue / Scale Signal	Parent Anxiety Solved
Taranis	Functional footwear	RMB 500M (2021, disclosed); ~1,000 stores (2024)	Healthy foot development at each growth stage
Hiya	Nutraceuticals	USD 103M LTM net sales (Sep 2024)	Sugar / artificial ingredients in kids' vitamins
Once Upon a Farm	Clean-label food	USD 225M revenue (FY25); NYSE listed	Preservatives and low-quality ingredients in baby food
Tin Can	Consumer tech	USD 21.5M raised; revenue undisclosed	Smartphone / screen addiction at a young age

SOURCES

Taranis

Company brand history and profile (Baidu Baike); company site (taraniskids.com); PRNewswire, Jul 2026.

Hiya

Pulse2 founder interview; Entrepreneur; LA Business Journal; US Chamber CO-; USANA Health Sciences official investor-relations press release (Dec 2024); Nutraceuticals World.

Once Upon a Farm

Reuters; Forbes (citing IPO S-1 filing, Feb 2026); Haas School of Business (Berkeley) profile; Fortune; Food Business News; Tracxn; Yahoo Finance.

Tin Can

GeekWire; Founded.com; Yanko Design; Wikipedia; Greylock Partners investor announcement; Startup Intros (Crunchbase-sourced funding data).

Exchange rates

1 USD = Rs 96, 1 CNY = Rs 14.3 -- mid-market rates, late September 2026, cross-checked across Xe, Wise, MTFX and BookMyForex.

Meant for research purposes, not financial advice. Please do your own research.

Follow @iamsatyavyas for more cash flow business ideas.